When Mr. Sonnew
perhaps it may
interest you reading
to know that on last Monday I was hi-
amply & non-
created for restriction to the next Congress
over a raid of McCallan Republican & a big-admiral general who left his post in the
army & stomped
the district against me for the post
viz. wins. I remained at my post here preparing to hazard my success rather than

leave my duties
here to go home
to electioneers
for another term.
The contest was a most bitter one
but my friends
every where upheld
our own signal
victory.

With great
regard Yours

Sir: Mr. Julian

P. S. I some time ago
sent you a copy of my late speech accompanied by a note to you,

which I hope you
received.
